

Little Bohemia Neighborhood Association

Meeting notes, October 5, 2017

Meeting hosted by Lam and Meredith, 459 Banfil Street, 7:00 PM

Chaired by Mark Fangmeier

Introductions!

Who wants to host the November meeting?!?!?!?

No takers! So Mark and Lindsay will host.

Bad Weather Brewing Company Entertainment License Application - Joe Giambruno

Application for a Class A entertainment license - "live music". Amplified and non-amplified musical performances. Approved with 8:00 p.m. weekday and 10:00 p.m. weekends end time - inside only. Joe was at our meeting gathering neighborhood input. Willing to have music with doors open and walk around the neighborhood to understand impact.

Letter of support from the association was requested by Bad Weather and of the 18 members in attendance there was unanimous support for the LBNA writing a letter in support of Bad Weather's license application.

412 Goodrich Update and Fundraiser Info - Mark

10th oldest house in St Paul. House donated to Historic St Paul as the developer. Financial support required. Details being worked out. BWB supporting with space during fundraiser November 5th, so mark your calendar! Volunteer opportunities will be available.

47 Douglas Update - Mark

Someone is interested in the property for development (restoration)! RFP is next step. Update next meeting.

Adopt a Garden on Little Bohemia Trail - Jenny

Plots are marked out along the trail for adoption - next spring after the construction. Jen has a map with areas identified for sign-up. Need a date for a larger group to work on the hillside to pull weeds etc.

Bike path status update - Mark

Still on schedule for end of October to be completed. Still working on the official naming for the path = "Little Bohemia Trail".

Current problem properties/safety concerns.

Some issues on Coburn - domestic dispute (rental). Could get a letter out, but a complicated matter.
