

Little Bohemia Neighborhood Association
Meeting notes, [date], 2015

Meeting hosted by SchaOn Blodgett, 280 Sturgis Street, 7:00 PM

Chaired by Mark “Daddy” Fangmeier.

Introductions. Also, 2017 meeting host signup. Mark passed around a signup sheet; contact him at mark.fangmeier@gmail.com if you are interested.

Bike path update—Jen Gelhar. Includes sign, maintenance to be performed before winter begins. Bank Cherokee staff came and did some mulching. Can we get one or two more groups to finish up before it snows? Perhaps Journeys School? LBNA members are encouraged to talk with other groups about volunteering. There’s a Full Moon gardening session (re)scheduled for Sunday October 16. Jen will post details on the signboard near Burger King.

Speaking of the sign: there are still ideas floating around on what to do with the back of the permanent sign. Probably this will include some historical information about the neighborhood. Sarah Gleason is spearheading this project.

Tom Brock found that one of the tree signs seems to have been broken. Was it vandalized, or just broken by a City lawnmower? It needs replacing.

Garden Tour update—Jen Gelhar. There is still time to get your garden onto the list. Please contact Marit Brock at maritbrock@gmail.com if you are interested.

Plant offer—Naomi Austin. If anyone wants a large juniper plant, in a pot, please contact her. Juniper and apple trees can’t be planted in the same yard: the apple will catch cedar apple rot.

Housing update—Mark. 301 Sturgis, 326 Harrison, Goodrich duplex. Construction has begun on all of these. Huzzah! What is happening at 290 Sturgis Street? SchaOn reports that a friend tried to purchase it, but the property has never been foreclosed upon. That process should begin very soon, and potentially this house may be on the market in spring 2017.

Fall neighborhood social, Saturday October 15. SchaOn says this will be from 5:00 to 8:00 PM at Pleasant Place. He’ll have at least one firepit, potentially bobbing for apples, perhaps pumpkin-carving (BYOP). Potluck, with a fall theme? Pumpkin and apple pies? Beer? Talk this up; let your friends know! Check the LBNA Facebook page.

December neighborhood social. This will be December 1. Where shall we have it? We do not have an LBNA business meeting in December. Mark has reached out to Logan at Bad Weather, but has not yet heard back. Back room at Burger Moe’s? Forepaugh’s? 6th floor of the Schmidt Brewery? We’ll try Bad Weather first and see how that works.

Recycling bins. Sharon Lynch reports that the city will be delivering recycling carts between the end of November and the beginning of January. This should include instructions as to what materials are (and are not) accepted.

Current problem properties / safety concerns. Remember to call 266-8989, and report nuisance properties to the City!

The next LBNA business meeting will be 7:00 PM Thursday November 5, hosted by Jen Gelhar at 295 Sturgis Street. Send agenda ideas to info@littlebohemiaspaul.org
