

Little Bohemia Neighborhood Association
Meeting notes, March 2, 2017

Meeting hosted by Nicki Nolen, 73 Western Ave, 7:00 PM—Chaired by Mark Fangmeier

- Snacks from Brake Bread (<https://brakebread.com/>) - THANK YOU!!
- Introductions!
- Guest discussing new development at 210 Grand Avenue - Ihran Khan
 - Working name for the development is “The Spartan”
 - Restaurant with seating for 48, serving beer and wine (no liquor)
 - Open for breakfast through dinner
 - Fast casual dining
 - After discussion, neighbors concluded that if asked LBNA would write a letter of support for a restaurant on the currently vacant lot.
- Garden Tour 2017 - June 10th - Update!
 - Garden confirmations, paragraphs, and photos due ASAP
 - Participants need to provide one paragraph description of garden/yard and a photo
 - If you are interested in participating please email Ericka:
elhazelett@comcast.net
 - SchaOn coordinating advertising with Joe L.
 - Plant sale at the Federation - parking lot on 7th across from Chicago Taste Authority as staging/promotional area for the day of sale
- Bike Path Update - City Council Hearing on March 15th at 5:30pm
 - Final approval of Bike Path project is schedule for Wednesday, March 15th at City Hall starting at 5:30pm. If you can attend PLEASE DO.
 - There was a community meeting from City of St. Paul Public Works held on February 28th at the Palace Rec Center
 - Details of plans can be found at:
<https://www.stpaul.gov/departments/public-works/road-construction/i-35e-trail-rec-onstruction>
 - Congrats to Jen Gehlhar on receiving the Community Forestry Award - Outstanding Project Award for the Little Bohemia Bike Trail Improvement Project

The next LBNA meeting will be Thursday, April 6, 7:00 PM, hosted by Mark and Lindsay at 455 Banfil Street. Please send agenda ideas to info@littlebohemiastpaul.org

Upcoming Events:

- City Council Meeting: Final approval of Little Bohemia Trail Bike Path Project - Wednesday, March 15 at 5:30 PM, 15 Kellogg Blvd. West, 310 City Hall
 - If you would like to carpool, please make a note on our Facebook page or email info@littlebohemiastpaul.org
- Two Stop For Me events along West 7th (see attached flyer)
 - March 17th, 5-6pm at intersection of West 7th and Goodrich
 - March 22nd, 2:30-3:30pm at intersection of West 7th and Perlman